ABOUT THE AWARDS

The world of brand design and strategy is brimming with excellent young talent.

Transform's Young Contenders programme recognises those who are making their mark in the formative stages of their careers. It benchmarks the next generation of strategic, creative and innovative brand specialists. It celebrates those who are shaping our future brands as well as identifying those companies who understand the importance of investing in the leaders of tomorrow.

Now is the time to recognise and reward your staff and to highlight what makes your approach to their development different.

WHY SHOULD I ENTER?

Only the trailblazing strategic, creative and client-facing brand specialists are named Transform's Young Contenders.

Those who make it have challenged existing best practice or conventional thinking and have crafted new solutions in rebranding and brand development. Those selected for this prestigious list stand out as the most promising of their generation of creative and strategic thinkers. Entrants can be based in-house or in an agency.

All shortlisted nominees are invited to celebrate at the awards presentation in May 2021.

What is the age requirement for Transform's Young Contenders candidates?

To be eligible for consideration in Transform's Young Contenders nominees must be aged 30 or under on 31 December 2020.

How do I nominate someone for Young Contenders?

To nominate someone click the 'nominate' tab in the menu bar above, from this page you will be directed to a form where you are to complete the details and attach your PDF submission. As a nominator, we require your nominee's name, job title, phone number, e-mail address and an explanation as to why you think they are a suitable candidate for Young Contenders.

Who can nominate a candidate?

Anyone can nominate a candidate who they feel is eligible for Young Contender status.

Can I nominate myself?

Yes, you can. However you will need to provide a testimonial from your line manager, client etc.

Can I nominate more than one person?

You can nominate as many people as you'd like.

Can I nominate a group or a pair of people as co-nominees?

Sadly not. This awards programme recognises an individual's achievements, merits and successes.

What makes someone a good candidate for Transform's Young Contenders?

Candidates should be passionate about brand and brand development and display exceptional talent and potential and have demonstrable achievements in the field. They can be based in-house or at an agency in a strategic or creative role.

Will the nominees be told who nominated them?

Yes. The nominees will be told that they were nominated.

Does being nominated multiple times help my nominee?

No, it will not benefit the nominee or strengthen their case.

Are there any geographical restrictions?

Entrants must be from Europe. Please see the eligibility and rules section for eligible countries.

How are the Young Contenders selected?

A judging panel including senior branding professionals will convene to assess all the entrants. This gathering will debate the merits of the candidates, weighing their achievements until they find this year's outstanding candidates.

Who are the judges?

The Young Contenders selection panel will be announced in due course and details are available on the website, on the judges' page.

When will I find out if I have been selected as a Young Contender?

Those who are selected for this year's Young Contenders will be contacted in March 2021.

What happens next?

Candidates are invited to join their industry peers at the awards presentation hosted by Transform magazine in May 2021. Those who are entered (the nominee) into the awards will receive a complimentary ticket to the awards ceremony. Additional tickets are available to purchase for colleagues, family and friends to join their nominee on the night.

Will I get a trophy?

Yes. Successful candidates will be presented with a trophy at Transform's Young Contenders Awards.
